

Location: Utah State Historical Society

Park City's Reservoirs (At time of the fire of 1898)
PTI Trees, Mt. Howe

Hauling ore by sleigh on Main Street. Driver is George Street.

Location: Fraser Park

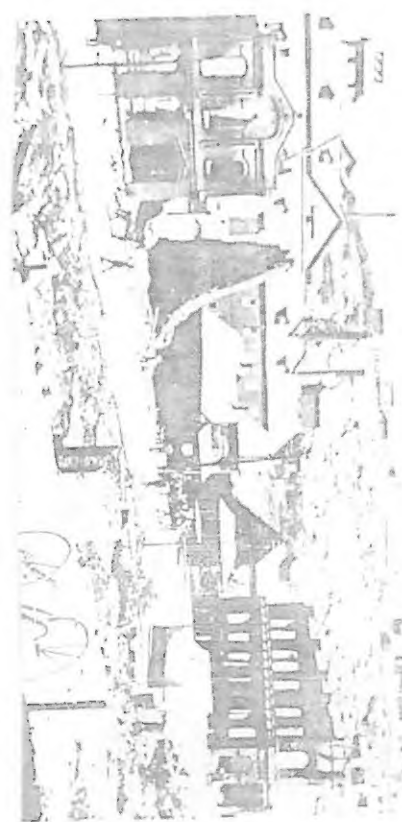

Remains of Congregational Church, 1898, Park City, Utah

Location: Utah State Park (1900)

Looking South from bottom of Main Street 1898, Park City, Utah

Location: Adler Studio Park City

Remains of City Hall, Marsau Mill in background, Park City, Utah, 1898

Location: Adler Studio Park City

Copyrighted by the Library of Congress

June 19, 1898, Park City, Utah goes up in flames

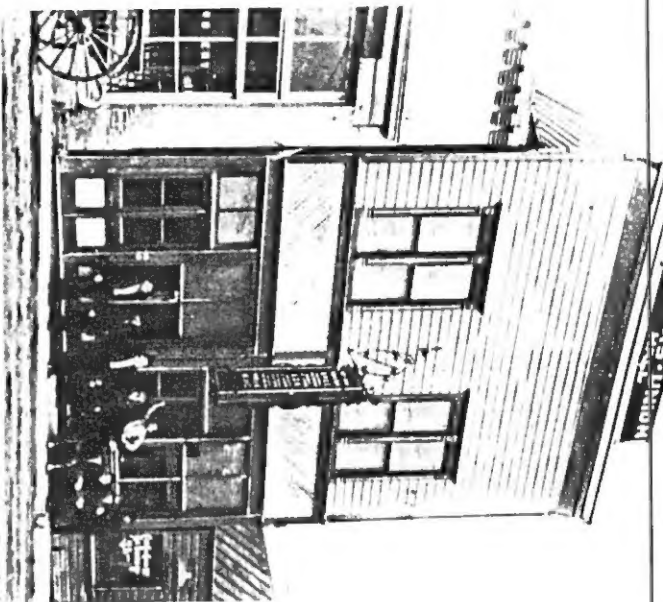

Copyrighted by the Library of Congress

City Hall in ruins, 1898, Park City, Utah

Invasion of Grand Opera House, 1898, Park City, Utah, Opening night, March 31, 1898, burned June 19, 1898

Copyrighted by the Library of Congress

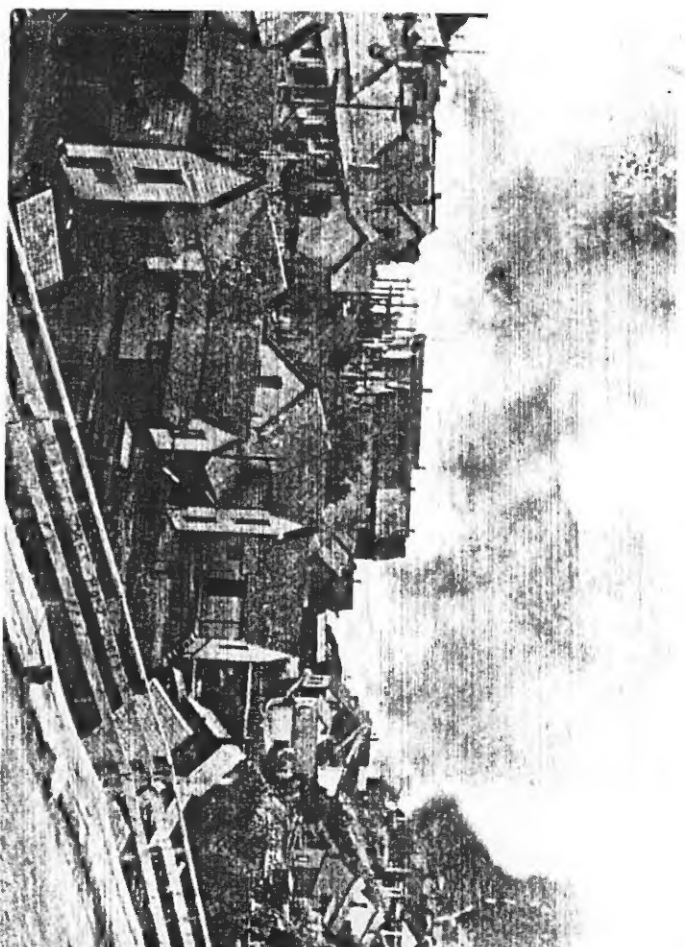

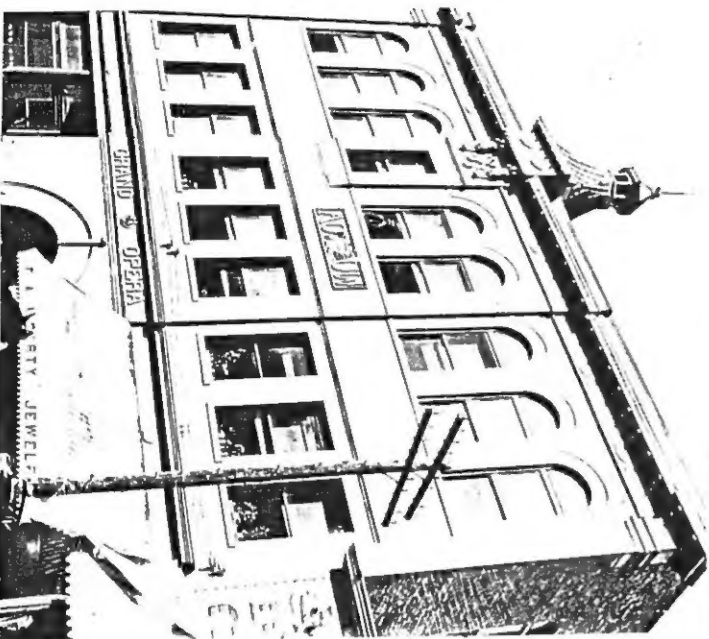

The Western Federation of Miners Union Hall

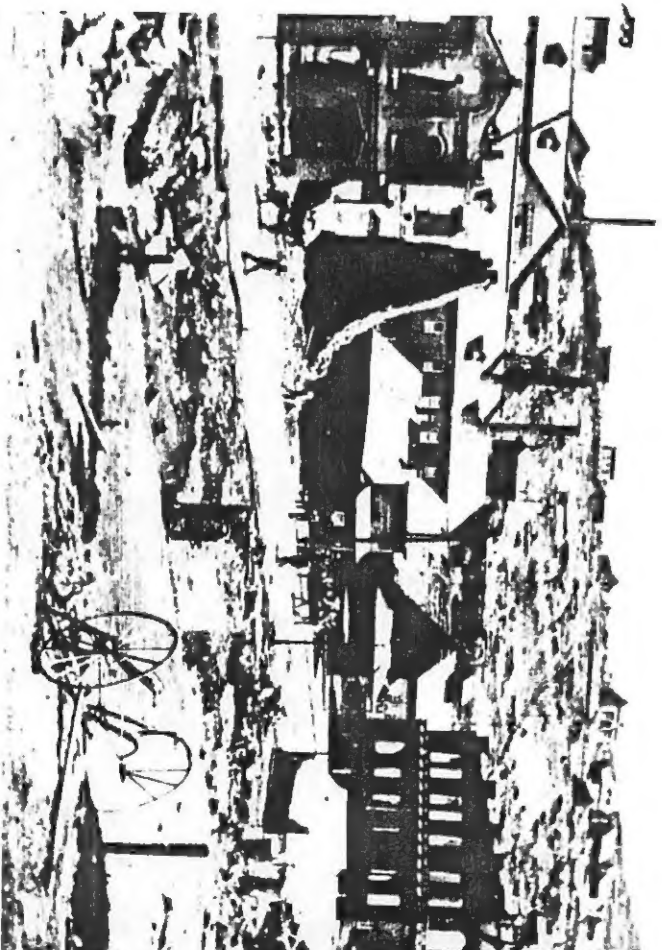

Courtesy: Fraser Book

The Grand Opera House & The Ancient Order of United Workmen Building. In use only three months before it burned in the great fire of 1898.

Courtesy: Mrs. Blanche Beck

Park City burns to the ground, June 19, 1898. -Courtesy Ken Webb.

Remains of the City Hall after the great fire. The building front is still in use. -Courtesy Ken Webb.

146
P. Webb
Mt. Home

Interior of a small type of house, 1890s Park City, Utah, looking north. Photo by 1890s. Howard Jones (9, 1890s)

Location: Adams Street, 1890s (9)

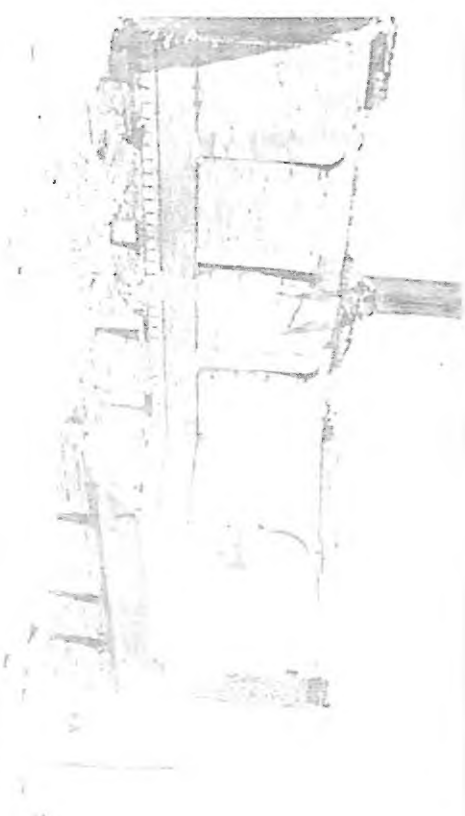

Looking south from bottom of Main Street 1890s Park City, Utah

Location: Adams Street, looking south

Remains of City Hall, Mason Mill in background, Park City, Utah, 1890s

Location: Adams Street, looking south

Remains of City Hall, Mason Mill in background, Park City, Utah, 1890s

June, 1914. 1895. Park City, Utah. 2nd floor of the Times.

June, 1914. 1895. Park City, Utah.